

Hazel Bowman, Army

I was stationed at the Oakland Army Base when those poor souls were being returned back to home in caskets. That was an image no one can ever forget. It still breaks my heart whenever I think about this.