

Sandra Carol Allen, Air Force

My interaction with the event in the 1970s was that I was an airman at Charleston AFB and our aircraft brought the precious cargo home for burial. I prayed for those people and their families when I was on those planes.